Brief Synopsis

Current Situation as of 0930 hrs

There are less than 10 people on Parliament Hill and approximately 100 people in and around the area of Wellington, Elgin and Rideau Sussex. Our geographical footprint remains mostly unchanged. The number of trucks in the area appears to be less than the last count of 500 trucks. There was an increase in the number of vehicles located at Jetform Park. Officers report that there were a substantial number of vehicles at this location (between 50 and 100).

There are 95 officers deployed at the footprint as follows:

OPP - 17 Static, command & logistics

RCMP - 22 static, command & logistics

OPS (inclusive of 3 Cornwall PS) - 55 (this includes 28 officers assigned to CSET from FLD)

PLT continues to engage with the different factions. ESU will be deployed in staggered shifts later today.

A convoy of approximately 50-60 personal vehicles (no heavy trucks) is engaging in a slow moving protest action in and around the Ottawa Airport. The initial convoy started from Jetform Park. Initial intervention by Traffic officers caused a full stoppage of traffic which was concluded in order to keep traffic moving. Airport authority is aware and monitoring. PLT attempted to engage several times but was unsuccessful.

Operational planning continuing by the SSC for the period.
